

レクチャー

Global Mission

Catholic Imperial and Spiritual Networks in India and beyond (16h-18th c.)

2016年3月18日 金

14:30-16:00 国際日本文化研究センター 第五共同研究室

講師：Ines G. Zupanov 氏

(フランス国立科学研究センター シニア・フェロー)

コメンティター：Frederik Cryns

司会：磯前順一

今回東京大学東洋文化研究所の客員教授として来日することとなった国際的な宗教人類学者である Zupanov 教授を招き、カトリック教と帝国主義との関係、およびヨーロッパ列強のアジア進出というテーマでレクチャーをおこなっていただきます(発表は英語でおこないます)

Lecture

Global Mission

Catholic Imperial and Spiritual Networks in India and beyond (16h-18th c.)

Fri. 18th March 2016 14:30–16:00

Conference Room 5,
International Research Center for Japanese Studies (Nichibunken)

Lecturer: Prof. Ines G. Zupanov

(Senior Research Fellow, Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique)

Commentator: Assoc. Prof. Frederik Cryns

Moderator: Prof. Jun'ichi Isomae

In this talk I will present my recently published book about hard-won knowledge produced in and about South Asia and disseminated through the global networks of the early modern Portuguese empire. Inextricably connected to expansion of Catholicism, Portuguese empire developed a set of knowledge practices – which we call Catholic Orientalism - geared to perpetuate political ambitions and cultural fantasies of the early modern Catholic protagonists and their communities in South Asia and beyond.

